608	FaceLazers	FaceLazer Duels	Sunday	1500 — 1700
Come point the lasers in your face at the lasers in other people's faces. Can mere eye contact make a permanent mark on someone's soul? Let's find out by staring at each other until it burns!
After all, you know you want to meet new people at Flipside, but every time you open your mouth something lame and pointless comes out. That's why you should be at the FaceLazer Duels, saying nothing to that new friend you're making. Trust us, it will go better for you this way!
602	Ecstatic Hearts Camp	Intro to Tantra	Friday — Sunday	1600 — 1700
Heard about tantra, but not sure what it's all about? This class will delve into the mysteries of energy flow and connection, relating to your fellow human beings and opening yourself to profound love and ecstatic bliss. Great for novices, beginners, or even experts looking for a refresher or a chance to take a deeper dive into what they already know. Partners are not required, and no direct sexual touch will be occurring. This is a consent event, where you can participate as fully or as partially as you desire, though you will be encouraged to push through your boundaries to discover breakthroughs for emotional release, and find complete and unconditional acceptance of self.
These classes are open to all including any sexual preferences, relationship statuses, and gender identities. This is a safe space to learn, explore and grow.
305	Sparkedelica	Consent & Boundary Negotiation Workshops	Friday — Sunday	1600 — 1800
Consent is the 11th principal and we all know how important it is in the burn environment. Join us for some education and activities that will expand your capacity to handle consent issues and negotiate boundaries successfully. Sparkedelica is a lounge space with lots of shag carpets and fans. Please feel free to come chill out with us while we host the workshop; anyone is welcome!
Workshop is led by Ranger LT Lily; she has been advocating for consent at burns for years and helped vote in consent as a community principal. Lily is excited to expand the consent conversation at burns and looks forward to your participation.
The Consent & Boundary workshop is scheduled to start at 4:30pm in the Sparkedelica lounge. You are welcome to arrive early to enjoy our fans and claim a space on our shag carpets.

It's all-American sustenance and innuendo, served with essence. The Yayborhood will be represented musically by the DJ duo SUNNY GAY REAL ESTATE (Dr. Beard and Daddie Dearest), staging house, disco, classic gay anthems, and the smell of freshly baked cookies. See you fine residents at the Yayborhood on Sunday from 4 to 7. And if not, we'll just gossip about you. Bless your heart. Y'ALL MEANS ALL.
